

Cafeto | AssuriCăre ✓

This company in the health industry presents a web application that offers services so users can have a better quality of life. On this platform, you can find services such as: making invoices, generating confirmation reports of home care, monitoring patient care, and many more.

Needs

- Update the app according to the requirements.
- Work with world-class vendors which can be complemented with their knowledge and experience.

Challenges

- Work on a legacy system.
- Learn about marketing and know business's rules.
- The volatility of the requirements.
- Change of developers and restart of onboarding.

Our Work

Web application

Cafeto Software, at the end of 2020, managed to link with this company through a partner from the United States recommendation.

10 sprints were carried out with the client. During the process, it was necessary to understand the current system to connect with the developers.

In the end, there was an opportunity to start another project that is currently being carried out.

Tech Stack

.Net

Angular

Outcomes

Great connection with the world-class developers that Cafeto works with.

Services repurchase process was achieved.

Development of web application.

Valuable feedback from the customer.

The client manages to optimize processes.

About Cafeto

Cafeto is a global software development company with a presence in the United States and Latin America to help companies build their dream products by guiding the whole development process, starting from strategy to delivery and maintenance. Cafeto works with global enterprises and small businesses, and early-stage startups based on specific milestones and where they want to be in the project timeline to turn their ideas into reality through its four lines of service: our Software Factory, Development Staff Augmentation, Digital Agency, and Support & Operations.

100+
Projects

40+
Customers

300+
People

3+
Countries

11+
Years

Cafeto

Your Technology Partner to Deliver on Your Success